

I placed my name on the national and state do not call lists for a reason, I don't appreciate having that choice threatened by anyone or anything. As far as I'm concerned, banks or any other business shouldn't have the right to call me at home! If I want to do business with them, I'll let them know....but it's MY choice NOT theirs!!